The Estonian Network for University Continuing Education (ENUCE) was established on January 30, 2001 in Tartu. It is an informal network that unites specialists responsible for coordinating the field of continuing education at universities.

The cooperation network includes all six public universities from the beginning, the Estonian Academy of Security Sciences and TTK University of Applied Sciences joined later.

The network operates through:
- meetings where current issues in the field are discussed, agreements are made to improve the quality of university continuing education and joint activities are planned;
- an e-mail list through which discussions and information exchange on continuing education take place and
- joint projects and activities agreed at meetings.

4. Focus

Please describe the main objectives and areas of activity of your National Network. Your response may include:

- Core mission and strategic goals
- Main areas of work (e.g., accreditation, policy advocacy, coordination, training, research, etc.)
- National and/or international collaborations
- Services provided to members
- Current priorities

The aim of the network is to:

- promote lifelong learning,
- develop the skills and competencies of continuing education professionals,
- improve the quality of continuing education,
- promote cooperation between the university and society

Current priorities are:

- Interaction with Estonian Ministry of Education and Research regarding registration (and updating) curricula of Micro-credentials in Estonian Education Information System (EEIS)
- Automatic data exchange between informatoion systems in order to send data of MC sertificates to EEIS
- New state order offer for CE&training courses for adults with low or outdated skills until the end of 2027.

5. Key Activities (Optional)

Please list up to 5 major ongoing or recent initiatives, projects, or programmes.

- Micro-credentials and information systems
- Automatic data exchange between universities' and Estonian Education Information System (EEIS) and national CE management system JUHAN
- Communication with the Ministry of Education and Science to clarify processes for updating Micro-Credential' curriculum in EEIS
